

The Ian Parker International Masterclasses

- One day workshops on the Gold Coast (or similar locations)
- Small group of like-minded individuals from a variety of Leadership/Business/Management backgrounds to brainstorm with and bounce ideas off wherever you are on your leadership journey. You will have the opportunity to outline your greatest leadership and business building challenges and get some real world advice and practical strategies from our coaches and delegates that you can apply straight away. We will discuss ideas and share strategies
- You will also gain a better understanding of what a leader actually is, why they are so important and why it must definitely start with you!
- There are live Roleplays and Hot Seats
- Real life advice and strategies tailored to your challenges
- And case studies on exceptional Leaders of our time

You'll also have the opportunity to share with the group what's been working for you in your business and/or team

We look forward to working with you and helping you achieve all your Leadership goals
